In addition, the Company regards dividends as its primary means of shareholder return and aims to maintain a consolidated payout ratio of 30% or higher.
For the current fiscal year, as announced today, the Company now expects its consolidated financial results for the fiscal year to exceed the previous forecast. Accordingly, the Company has decided to increase its dividend forecast for the current fiscal year by 15.0 yen per share from the previous forecast (7.5 yen at the end of the second quarter and 7.5 yen at the fiscal year-end), and revise the annual dividend forecast to 105.0 yen per share (52.5 yen at the end of the second quarter and 52.5 yen at the fiscal year-end).
